

Rob Hoskins is the president of OneHope, a global ministry that has reached more than 2 billion children and youth with God’s Word worldwide since 1987. Born to missionary parents, Rob spent his formative years in the Middle East and France, which instilled in him a deep passion for cross-cultural ministry. Rob holds a Doctor of Ministry in World Missions and Cross-Cultural Studies from Gordon-Conwell Theological Seminary.

Since taking leadership of OneHope in 2004, he has continued to advance the vision of God’s Word. Every Child. by partnering with local churches to help reach over 2 billion children and youth worldwide with a contextualized presentation of God’s Word. In addition to extensive print and film programs, Rob has overseen the expansion into digital with the Bible App for Kids and Kids Bible Experience developed in partnership with YouVersion, as well as numerous other evangelism, discipleship, and leadership-development initiatives.

Beyond his role at OneHope, Rob serves as a senior advisor to the World Evangelical Alliance, a member of the Empowered21 Global Council, and is dedicated to training emerging Christian leaders through Southeastern University’s Doctor of Missiology program.

Rob is the author of several books, including Change Your World, co-authored with John C. Maxwell. He is committed to equipping leaders to make a kingdom impact through strategic vision and practical action. Rob and his wife, Kim, have two daughters and three grandchildren. Together, they are passionate about their mission to “build young leaders and serve great leaders.”
